Heartfulness 7- Day Kindness Challenge

“Let the goodness of your heart be reflected in your actions.”

– Daaji

Heartful Schools, offered by the Heartfulness Institute, has initiated a 7-Day Kindness Challenge for students in K-12 grades. By performing an act of kindness every day over a week, students enhance their emotional quotient (EQ) and unleash a ripple effect that transforms their lives and those of the people around them.

Why should you participate in the Challenge?

- An opportunity to perform simple but unique acts of kindness
- An opportunity to grow as a community when participating as a group
- An opportunity to look at the world in a new way by becoming aware of the needs of the people around us
- An opportunity to receive appreciation by winning a prize for your class!

Guidelines for using the Ebook

1. The 7 day Kindness Challenge starts on February 14th and ends on February 21st
2. Go to your grade level and pick any 7 acts of kindness from the list.
3. Perform an act of kindness from the selected list each day over 7 days.
4. Choose to do some of the suggested activities given in the ebook.
5. Appreciate the students for their participation in the kindness acts.
6. Upload the pictures of their acts of kindness at this link.
7. On February 21st, reflect with the students about the experience of participating in the challenge.
8. All submissions will be entered in a raffle to win prizes for your classroom.
9. All submissions will receive a certificate of appreciation.
10. All submissions are due by February 26th.

Reflection Time

On February 21st, students can fill up a short reflection form describing their experiences of participating in the Kindness Challenge. Please submit the reflections here.

For younger grades, the teachers may send in the student responses.

Read the Kindness Quotes and discuss the thoughts/emotions they evoke in you

“No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted.” - Aesop

“Be kind whenever possible. It is always possible.” - Dalai Lama

“Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.” - Mother Teresa

“When words are both true and kind, they can change the world” - Buddha

“Try to be a rainbow in someone else’s cloud.” - Maya Angelou

“If we all do one random act of kindness daily, we might just set the world in the right direction.” - Martin Kornfeld

Wrinkled Hearts Activity

1. Cut out a giant heart from a paper.
2. Ask the students to share examples of unkind acts. It may even be events that they might have experienced.
3. As each unkind example is shared, fold the heart. Keep folding the heart for each gesture until the heart is completely folded.
4. Then, ask the students to share positive experiences or kind gestures. For each gesture, open one fold. Keep sharing until the heart is completely unfolded and open.
5. The visual of the heart is an explanation that when unkind things happen it can hurt our hearts (the folds in the heart). As we experience kindness and forgiveness, our heart opens back up but it may still be wrinkled. So, we need to be mindful of our words and heartfelt towards our actions before we say or do them.

Practice Guided Heartfulness Tools to Foster Kindness

HEARTFULNESS RELAXATION

Practice this guided relaxation by reading (and learning) this relaxation script, which makes gentle suggestions to relax your body, from the feet to the top of the head, and finally resting at the heart.

Sit comfortably and close your eyes very softly and very gently.

Begin with the toes. Wiggle your toes. Now feel them relax.

Feel the healing energy of Mother Earth move up into your toes, feet and ankles. Then up to your knees, relaxing the lower legs.

Feel the healing energy move further up your legs. Relax your thighs. Now, deeply relax your hips ... stomach ... and waist.

Relax your back. From your tailbone to your shoulders, feel your entire back relaxing.

Relax your chest and ... and shoulders. Feel your shoulders simply melting away...

Relax your upper arms. Relax each muscle in your forearms ... your hands ... right up to your fingertips.

Relax your neck muscles. Move your awareness up to your face. Relax the jaws ... mouth ... nose ... eyes ... earlobes ... facial muscles ... forehead ... all the way to the top of your head.

Feel how your whole body is now completely relaxed. Scan your system from top to toe, and if there is any part of your body that is still tense, painful or unwell, feel it being immersed in the healing energy of Mother Earth for a little while longer.

When you are ready, move your attention to your heart. Let's rest there for a while, feeling immersed in the love and light in your heart.

Remain still and quiet, and slowly become absorbed within.

Remain absorbed for as long as you want, until you feel ready to come out.

“Relaxing your body
is being kind to yourself.”

HEARTFUL AFFIRMATIONS

By stating an affirmation heartfully, we tune the chaos of the mind into the stillness of the heart, deepening our internal connection and strengthening the positive traits of the heart, such as compassion, empathy, and love.

These affirmations help us center, relax and be open. When we connect internally we are better able to connect externally to everyone and everything around us.

I am happy, joyful and grateful for all my life experiences.

I am clear, calm and confident with my words and actions.

I am balanced, I am centered, I am relaxed, I am connected within my heart.

I am becoming more empathetic, compassionate and loving.

I am genuine in my thinking, I am developing correct thinking, clear understanding and an honest approach to life.

I am feeling connected to everyone and everything around me.

How do you feel now?

Here are some guidance to know your feelings. Remember that the first step is to create awareness. Feel free to use them on your own or use them with others!
